DETAILED ACTION

Claims 11-16 are pending in the application. Claims 1-5,7,9 and 10 were canceled in the amendment filed 3/26/08. Any objections and/or rejections from previous office actions that have not been reiterated in this office action are obviated.

The objection to the specification as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter is withdrawn in view of the amendment to the claims.

The rejections of claims 1-5,7,9 and 10 under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement are withdrawn in view of the amendment to the claims.

The rejection of claims 1-5,7,9 and 10 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Komer (US 5,773,422) in view of Evans et al. (EP 0137 627B1) is withdrawn in view of the amendment to the claims.

Applicants assertions are moot in view of the amendment to the claims.

New Grounds of Rejection Necessitated by the Amendment to the Claims

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 11-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pearlman et al. (WO/9918800).

3. Pearlman et al. (WO/9918800) discloses a composition comprising a pediculocide (i.e. ivermectin) with a pediculostatic agent (i.e. CETAPHIL ® cleanser) (abstract; p18, lines 14-16; p19, lines 19-28). The levels of active ingredient (i.e. ivermectin) may be from about 0.25% to about 2.5%. The levels of active ingredients encompass the concentration of the instant claims, "from about 0.05% to 0.2%". The intended use of the dermatological composition is not afforded any patentable weight. "The recitation of a new intended use for an old product does not make a claim to that old product patentable." In re Schreiber, 44 USPQ2d 1429 (Fed. Cir. 1997).

At the time of the invention it would have been obvious to include an active agent (i.e. ivermectin) in combination with CETAPHIL ® cleanser as the prior art discloses such a composition. It would have been obvious to utilize a concentration of about 0.2%, such as 0.25% taught in Pearlman et al. Furthermore, it is obvious to vary and/or optimize the amount of (compound) provided in the composition, according to the guidance provided by (reference), to provide a composition having the desired properties such as the desired (ratios, concentrations, percentages, etc.). It is noted that "[W]here the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, it is not inventive to discover the optimum or workable ranges by routine experimentation." In re Aller, 220 F.2d 454, 456, 105 USPQ 233, 235 (CCPA 1955).

Conclusion

No claims are allowed at this time.

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
